

October 18th Membership Dinner Meeting

Drones are helping construction companies in Arizona

Drones are taking over the world and becoming a part of our everyday lives. Businesses of all sorts are just now starting to realize how drones can make them more money, save money, and impress everyone. A Tucson drone company, Airscope is helping construction companies around Arizona keep close tabs on their projects by flying quad-rotor and hex-rotor unmanned aerial vehicles. Chris Volkman, Airscope's owner will demonstrate how his service can benefit you.

AM Best A-rated carriers will introduce a cost-effective and advantageous Workers' Comp Insurance program to ACT members.

Sharon Powers, with POWERS SAFETY SERVICES, is a Registered Safety Professional, and a trained OSHA Authorized Outreach Instructor in both Construction and General Industry Standards. She has held this distinction since the mid-90's and regularly attends OSHA training seminars to update and refresh her training qualifications. Her background includes 7-1/2 years as a compliance officer and safety consultant for ADOSH. Sharon has been in the safety field since 1987 working in construction, mining and general industry. She works with clients in the construction community as well as in general industry, manufacturing, agriculture and aerospace. Sharon Powers will provide information regarding OSHA's local and federal levels updates.

Our business is helping you do yours!
